Frederic then announced the following Regional Technology Awards and that many would be submitted to the Society competition. The total projects submitted: 14-a record from this region Commercial, New: • 1st place: Sobeys Warehouse (Montreal) Note: This project should also be submitted for the Milton Garland Award (it is good enough for both awards). To locate the format for a submission go to Instruction: http://www.ashrae.org/members/page/1692. the deadline for submission to CTTC RVC - October 1st • Honorable Mention: Constitution Square Ph 2 (Ottawa) Commercial, Existing: • 1st place: National Bank Tower (Montreal) • Resubmit in May 2010 will be the C.D. Howe Building (Ottawa) Both very interesting projects and likely to win at Society Level. However, NB Tower submittal shows more readiness and has a slight edge on the CDH project; hence the decision. The CDH project is recommended to be resubmitted next year with a Long Form submittal and complete information. Institutional, New: • 1st place: Sureté du Québec Police Station (Montreal) • 2nd Place: Laboratory Expansion (Ottawa) Institutional, Existing: • 1st place: Pavillon Enviroton (Montreal)

Project needs 12 months on operation before being submitted (expansion completed April 2009; hence, not eligible yet). Otherwise, appears like a good candidate, but significant efforts needed to be put into submittal document Industrial Facility & Process, New: • 1st place: Logistik Unicorp (Montreal) Industrial Facility & Process, Existing: • 1st place: Place Desjardins (Montreal). Note! Central plant renovation into existing building, but without any impact on IAQ/Comfort, etc. Hence acceptable into this category. Public Assembly: • 1st place: Kawanake Survival School (Montreal) Residential: • 1st place: LeBreton Flats (Ottawa) Resubmit in 2010: Jardins Lebourgneuf (Quebec) Both good project, though LeBreton appears to have a slight edge overall (more reach into each judging criteria). However, Jardins is a good contender and invited to resubmit next year with a Long Form and complete documentation. The next presenter was Cathy Godin RVC MP Region 2.
